CONFLICT: The Cricket in Times Square

Describe the conflicts present in the story by giving each of the characters below a single sentence that describes his or her personality.

1. Chester Cricket

Chester Cricket is kind, gentle, and soft-spoken, traits which make it difficult for him to leave the Bellinis in their poverty to return to home and freedom.

2. Tucker Mouse

Tucker Mouse is good natured but a bit selfish and tight-fisted making him unsympathetic to Chester's internal dilemma.

3. Mario Bellini

Mario Bellini is a caring and considerate friend whose hospitality makes Chester feel indebted to him, intensifying the conflict in Chester's conscience.

4. Harry Cat

Harry Cat is kind and perceptive, but he does not understand where Chester is coming from or why he can not simply return to his home without a second thought.

5. Mama Bellini

Mama Bellini has a temper and a very low tolerance for pets, a trait which makes her antagonistic to Chester's presence in the newsstand.

6. Papa Bellini

Papa Bellini's kindness and long-suffering intensify Chester's sense of duty to the Bellini family which keeps him from seeking his freedom.

7. Mr. Smedley

Mr. Smedley has an eye for musical talent and a supportive personality, a trait which makes him a great proponent of Chester's musical career, another obstacle between Chester and his freedom.
