

QUICK CARD:
WILFRID GORDON MCDONALD PARTRIDGE

Reference	Wilfrid Gordon McDonald Partridge . Fox, Mem. (1991) ISBN: 978-0613511971
Plot	When Wilfrid learns that his elderly friend Miss Nancy has lost her memory, he sets out to find it.
Setting	A neighborhood home situated across the street from a retirement home.
Characters	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Wilfrid Gordon McDonald Partridge – a small child who lives next door to a retirement home</li> <li>• Mrs. Jordan – elderly resident of the home who plays the organ</li> <li>• Mr. Hoskings – elderly resident who tells scary stories</li> <li>• Mr. Tippet –resident who is “crazy about cricket!”</li> <li>• Miss Mitchell –resident who has trouble getting around.</li> <li>• Mr. Drysdale – has a “voice like a giant”</li> <li>• Miss Nancy Alison Delacourt Cooper – Wilfrid’s best friend at the home. She is losing her memory.</li> <li>• Wilfrid’s parents – who pity Miss Nancy</li> </ul>
Conflict	Man vs. Nature Man vs. Self
Theme	The universality of the human experience which connects the generations The ingenuity of children The value of the individual regardless of age The value of love and friendship

Literary Devices	Rhyme Understatement (Litotes) Symbolism Sensory language Irony
-------------------------	--